

Chameleon Studio is a South Surrey, B.C. based professional performing arts studio for actor's study. CS provides a challenging learning environment for the beginner or professional actor. The studio is dedicated to training and preparing actors for professional work in the film and television industry.

PROFESSIONAL ACTING PROGRAMS

BEGINNING ACTING 101: Instructor: Robin Douglas 8 weeks 3 hours a night – Mon. Mar. 15 – May. 3 • 7:00 – 10:00 pm

This 8 week class is a MUST for the beginner actor! Comprehensive, exciting, fun and full of information is what this class is. Students learn a variety of performance skills required of all actors such as improvisation, character development, commercial techniques, scene study and more! Whether you're taking acting to become an actor or because you thought it would be fun to try, you'll soon discover acting is like nothing else you've ever done before. This program also includes a discussion on the technical aspects of the acting industry like how to get a talent agent, headshots, unions and more! The final week, all students can bring a friend to watch them perform a monologue or scene!

*Each student receives a detailed evaluation about their work specifying where their strengths and weaknesses are at this point. No other studio offers this for their students. We know that evaluations are an important tool for actors as they study and develop their craft.

ACCENT REDUCTION: MASTERING ENGLISH PRONUNCIATION Instructor: Robin Douglas 6 weeks 2 hours a night – Thur. Apr. 1 – May 6 • 6:30- 8:30 pm

Everyone wants to communicate clearly! If English is your second language, you may be finding that your communication skills are not at the same level as the reading and writing skills you mastered in ESL class. This class is designed to help you! By retraining the muscles we all use to make speech, and working on intonation and inflection, Mastering Clarity classes can help you get your message across – without having to repeat yourself. You will experience six weeks of personal coaching with lots of practice materials to take home. So, take the next step in your language training and enroll today!

SUCCESSFUL SPEAKING Instructor: Robin Douglas 6 weeks 2 hours a night – Thur. Apr. 8 – May. 13 • 4:00 - 6:00 pm (4 week course including weekly private sessions scheduled Fridays based on each students availability)

Whether your business requires you to make presentations, you have an important job interview, or you have to give the Best Man's toast at a wedding, this class is designed to make you more confident in your public speaking skills. With a combination of group and individual activities, instructors Tom Pickett and Robin Douglas will customize a program to fit your specific needs, complete with practice materials. WORKSHOPS -----

NEW AT CHAMELEON STUDIO!

JANUARY --

2 DAY - PHYSICAL COMEDY AND MODERN CLOWNING WORKSHOP

Sunday, Jan. 17, 2009, 11:00 – 4:00 pm Instructors: Gordon White and Elaine Brewer-White, Sunday Mar. 14, 2009 3:00 – 6:00 pm Follow-up with Elaine Brewer-White

An intensive course in physical theatre which reveals the necessary skill set a modern-day physical comedian must have. Lead by couple Gordon White and Elaine Brewer-White - Gordon has appeared as a lead clown performer for Cirque du Soleil for over 10 years and is currently featured in Cirque's new NYC based vaudeville show: Banana Shpeel. Elaine is head facilitator for the corporate entertainment company, The Comedy Factory, and has taught improv and clowning workshops across North America.

This course is geared to grooming potential candidates for Cirque du Soleil auditions to be held in Vancouver in late spring of 2010. Cirque du Soleil is currently casting for a multitude of clowning roles in shows featured from Vegas to Japan.

January 17 is a rare opportunity to work with both instructors in an rigorous 5 hour program. March 14 is a follow-up workshop with Elaine to review audition material and polish presentation skills.

Space is limited, early application is recommended.

APRIL --

ONE DAY VOICE OVER WORKSHOP

Sunday, Apr. 18, 2009, 11:00 am – 2:00 pm Instructor: Robin Douglas

This popular 3-hour workshop covers the three main types of voiceover employment currently happening in Vancouver: Commercials, Narration and Animation. There is also a discussion of the "business" of voiceovers which includes the topics of demos, agents, home studios and more. It's fun and informative! So come put on the headphones, step up to the microphone and let voiceover professional Robin Douglas introduce you to the world of voiceovers.
